By Skye Dexin

Reason why I developed my website.

- One of the main reasons why I developed my website is to gain the attention of potential employers.
- The next reason why I developed my website is to show my skills at developing a webpage (even though it is quite limited ATM)

Future Extensions of the app

- Making it completely flawless with different devices and resolutions
- Making it accessible to those of poor vision (larger text and or enabling full deployment of a screen reader)

Difficulties

- Some of the difficulties I had was getting the Twilight Sparkle Cutiemark not to break my gradient background on index.html
- Time!!!! And limited skills as well as knowledge of the code and the way each command in line works.

THRILLS!!

- Seeing the website complete and functioning in such a short time.
- The animated gradient background on both index.html and about_me.html
- Getting help from Matt in setting the ts_cm.png as the background on index.html (thanks mate)
